

A HYMN FOR EDUCATION SUNDAY

Inspired by Deuteronomy 32:11 – “As an eagle stirreth up her nest, fluttereth over her young, spreadeth abroad her wings, taketh them, beareth them on her wings.” KJV

1 Jesus is healing care,
Mother’s love healing scars.
Arms to hold, words to share,
wrap us in your kindness,
Let us be your likeness.

*Spirit come, come, come!
Spirit come, come, come!
Comfort us,
cherish us,
and inspire with beauty!*

2 Mother God, hold our pain,
mapping out new terrain,
deep down be more humane.
Let us feel uplifted,
knowing how we’re gifted.

Refrain

3 Father God, help us bring much new love to our kin.
As we face strange new things,
Give shape to our living,
Make us kind in giving.

Refrain

4 Loving God hear our prayer,
as we face new despair.
When we feel life’s unfair,
guide us through; astound us!
Let us know you’ve found us!

Refrain

5 Eagle God, lift us high!
Fledglings we cannot fly,
little wings, aiming high.
Have with us strong patience.
Let us be courageous.

Refrain

Sara Iles (1967 -)

6 6 6. 6 6. Suggested tune: Personent hodie (Theodoric)

© 2017 Stainer & Bell Ltd Hymns of Hope and Healing Edited by Jan Berry and Andrew Pratt

Local churches holding a CCL or One License Licence are permitted to reproduce the text for use in worship under the conditions of those licenses, but otherwise and for all other use application for reproduction should be made to Stainer & Bell Ltd.

