Looking Ahead 2012

ANNIVERSARIES

Two significant anniversaries fall in 2012.

The Queen's Diamond Jubilee will be celebrated in June, and that will be an occasion for much ecumenical activity, including festivals and local street parties.

The 350th anniversary of the Restoration Settlement in 1662 and the passing of the Act of Uniformity. In February the CofE and URC will celebrate a new relationship in Westminster Abbey. In August, CTE and Exeter University host a major colloquium to explore this historic fracture and subsequent healing.

2012 GAMES

The Games will provide the churches in England with a major opportunity to work together and in partnership with community groups. CTE is represented at trustee and executive level of www.morethangold.org.uk which is resourcing and co-ordinating the ecumenical response.

FORUM

The CTE triennial Forum 23-25th October on the theme 'What does love require of us?' This is for everyone in networks of churches together to engage at local, regional and national level.

Search 'Forum' on www.cte.org.uk for information.

SUPPORTING ECUMENICAL OFFICERS

CTE will continue to support county and national ecumenical officers, especially a number of new officers who begin work in 2012.

Our web site has information on all our work, including the Co-ordinating Groups, and Bodies in Association. It provides news of churches working together in mission and unity, at local, regional and national levels.

Visit www.cte.org.uk

Churches Together in England was established in 1990, along with Cytun (Wales) and ACTS (Scotland) to offer 'resourced space' for sharing between the churches on a wide range of common interests and concerns.

Churches Together in Britain and Ireland brings together the churches work across the four nations and links to the national instruments.

In counties and cities across England 'intermediate' ecumenical bodies, established by their own churches, offer support and resources to the 2500 local 'churches together' groupings. 800+ Local Ecumenical Partnerships are supported at this level.

CTE offers training and support for 'intermediate' Ecumenical Officers for this work.

The Enabling Group of CTE draws representatives of all its member churches together to reflect on the ecumenical journey and to offer direction to the work. This is largely done by Co-ordinating Groups for different areas of work and by the staff.
