Theos insights CTE: an independent review

The CTE Board asked Theos to research member churches and networks re contemporary ecumenism. Facilitating relationships and mission are key recommendations. www.cte.org.uk/theos

CTE Presidents terms of office

HG Bishop Angaelos and Pastor Agu each began a term as a CTE President, with thanks expressed to HE Archbishop Gregorios and Bishop Eric Brown for their time in office.

The 500th anniversary of the Reformation

The year was commemorated by many events, conferences and resources. CTE's Presidents offered guidelines. 100 delegates attended a CTE conference and there was a major service at Westminster Abbey.

Thy Kingdom Come

Following a call from the Archbishops of Canterbury and York, the CTE Presidents agreed to encourage all churches to pray for evangelisation between Ascension and Pentecost.

Behind Closed Doors

A major research project with Pentecostal churches re Human Trafficking and Modern Slavery was presented in a Parliamentary presentation. www.cte.org.uk/bcd

What is Churches Together in England?

Churches Together in England (CTE) was established in 1990, along with Cytûn (Wales) and ACTS (Scotland) to offer 'ecumenical space' for sharing between the churches on a wide range of common interests and concerns. Across the four nations is Churches Together in Britain and Ireland.

CTE works at a national level with 45 Member Churches in England. There are 6 Presidents: www.cte.org.uk/presidents in counties and cities across England, County/Intermediate ecumenical bodies support, resource and encourage over 2000 local Churches Together groups, over 900 Local Ecumenical Partnerships and innumerable ways in which local congregations work together informally.

Key to local ecumenism is the network of County Ecumenical Officers. CTE offers them training, resources and support, particularly at times of change.

The Enabling Group of CTE draws together representatives of all member churches to reflect on the ecumenical journey, and to provide direction to the work of CTE and their life together. The current agreed priorities of CTE are Relationships, Action for Mission and Theology.
